

2016 in Review

More Hopeful

Volunteers Enlisted to Assist People ■ Meeting Basic Needs. Building Stronger Communities.

3,100 Volunteers

WHAT WE PROVIDE AND WHO WE SERVE:

Basic needs and social services for low-income residents of Bloomington, Richfield, Edina, and south Minneapolis

– Social Service –

providing resources and housing assistance to prevent homelessness

$167,000

in financial assistance

520

new client assessments

5,100

referrals

– Transportation –

8,707

rides provided to seniors

4,116

rides home from VEAP's food pantry

– Food –

3,427,695 million

pounds of healthy food distributed

1.8 million

pounds of fresh produce

110,496 visits

to VEAP's Food Pantry

Student Hunger Collaborative

6,107 weekend bags of healthy food distributed to students at 13 local schools

Summer Youth Food

2,927 youth received

breakfast and lunch groceries during summer vacation